

Fair Hot Spots

Your Guide to the Best Hang Out Places at the 2009 Big Fresno Fair!

Stella Artois Blues & Brews

Hang out in the shade and enjoy a cold beer along with some great Fair food as you relax and listen to a variety of great musicians at the Stella Artois Blues & Brews, located between the Wells Fargo Agriculture and Home Arts buildings, on the north end of the Fairgrounds.

Save Mart Wine Garden

Pull up a chair and relax in the Save Mart Wine Garden. This spot features award-winning wine from a variety of Central Valley wineries. New this year, The Central California Winegrowers have partnered with C & C Concessions to help educate Fairgoers about wines and wine grapes grown in our region. Each day one to two different wines from San Joaquin Valley wineries will be showcased. Don't miss your chance to taste some of the best wines from the Central Valley and learn from the experts! So select your favorite glass, settle down with some tasty treats and enjoy the great live music!

Budweiser Cantina

Located in the Brian I. Tatarian Grandstand just off of the paddock, the Budweiser Cantina offers a great place for fairgoers to relax and still experience the excitement of live horse racing. Grab a margarita, find a seat and listen to some of the only banda music around! Watch this cantina come to life as the music starts and the dance floor fills!

Luxury Deck

Watch live horse racing from some of the best seats in the Brian I. Tatarian Grandstand. Seated just above the paddock, on the second floor of the Grandstand, the Luxury Deck offers the best views, exclusive wagering areas, shaded tables, a private bar and plenty of great food. Anyone who sits here is already a big winner at the Fair!

Pavilion Stage

There is always something fun and exciting happening on the Pavilion Stage, located in the Fresno County Sesquicentennial Park. From local performers and talent competitions to famous musicians and exciting Knock Out Night matches...there's something for everyone!

Table Mountain Rancheria Park

Let your imagination run wild! The park is a kid's (and parent's) dream. It's like an amusement park right in the middle of the Fairgrounds!

Sports Zone

This hot spot is a sports fan's paradise! TV's are constantly playing the best sports around, including Bulldog Football games! Live ESPN Radio broadcasts, pitching cages and bull riding are also in the Sports Zone... who wouldn't want to be here?
